In 2016, The Repertory Theatre of St. Louis celebrated its 50th anniversary of performing an eclectic array of live professional theatre, with mainstage and studio shows (left, I and You; right, Peter and the Starcatcher), a touring ensemble, and special events such as Ignite! New Scripts Out Loud.

BY SHINING A SPOTLIGHT

- Honored five residents, organizations, and communities through our Missouri Arts Awards for their vital contributions to Missouri's cultural life
- Highlighted the achievements and economic impact of Missouri artists, organizations, and communities through our social media and website
- Presented about Missouri arts at the national Leadership Exchange on Arts and Disability Conference and statewide Professional Development Conference of Community Arts Leaders

BY PROGRAMMING

- Increased underserved Missourians' access to high quality arts through our Ghost Light Project with the Missouri Association of Community Arts Agencies
- Expanded our Cultural Access program that educates arts organizations about accessibility issues
- Furthered our Creative Aging Initiative by partnering with Alzheimer's Poetry Project and Arts & Aging KC, and by participating with the National Center for Creative Aging's Communities of Practice on panels, in focus groups, and as a mentoring partner for new members

ABOUT THE MISSOURI ARTS COUNCIL

As funder, partner, and catalyst, the Missouri Arts Council supports the arts that strengthen the cultural, educational, and economic vitality of our state. Our grants make quality arts programming possible in every corner of Missouri. A division of the Department of Economic Development, we are funded through the Missouri General Assembly, Missouri Cultural Trust, and National Endowment for the Arts.

ON THE FRONT COVER

Left: At-risk underserved children learn patience, persistence, and focus through music with Harmony Project KC. The intense year-round after-school/weekend program at Kansas City's Northeast Community Center combines lessons and performances with character development to keep children safe, in school, and inspired.

Top right: Every year since 1959, the Columbia Art League has created scores of visual arts experiences for mid-Missourians of all ages, including classes, camps, gallery shows, exhibits around the community, and the Art in the Park festival.

Bottom right: Sarah Koo of Parkway North High School in St. Louis County rose from among 5,500 Missouri high school students to be the state's champion in the 2016 Poetry Out Loud National Recitation Contest. The Missouri Arts Council annually leads the state's participation in this National Endowment for the Arts/Poetry Foundation program to engage students in great poetry.
